Dominus and Napanook 2006

New Release

We are delighted to offer the 2006 vintage of Dominus and Napanook, Christian Moueix's Napa venture, which has just been released onto the market. The 2006 vintage was very much a viticulturalist's vintage – as, unusually for Napa, the weather was not as predictable as usual. A cool, damp early season got things off to a slow start, however an extremely hot July allowed the vines to catch up. This is where the good practitioner came in, keeping the vines healthy in both the damp and the extreme heat, when grapes can suffer from sunburn. Once these joint perils had been dealt with, August and September came in more true to form – hot and dry with cooler nights to refresh the vines. Not usually given to hyperbole, Christian Moueix describes the 2006 Dominus as 'the best definition of a great wine; it transcends time and place' – high praise indeed.

£ per case, in bond

Dominus 2006

6 per case

£350

91% Cabernet Sauvignon; 6% Cabernet Franc; 3% Petit Verdot

An impressive, hugely structured wine, with copious amounts of ripe black fruits behind the tannic structure, this is a wine which will repay considerable cellaring and probably shouldn't be approached for the first decade. Deep black fruits, spiced, rich and layered, with a hint of bitter chocolate behind, the substantial tannins are very ripe and integrated, going to a long, expansive finish. From 2016

Napanook 2006

12 per case

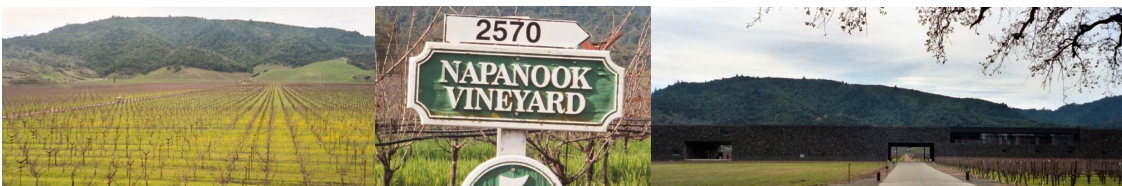

£290

87% Cabernet Sauvignon; 5% Cabernet Franc; 5% Petit Verdot; 3% Merlot

In complete contrast to Dominus, Napanook is already approachable and open with lashings of juicy black and red fruits on the nose, underscored by spiced new oak notes, with fine, ripe tannins behind. It is far from simple, however, and despite its very attractive demeanour it is a wine which will mature well. From 2013
