Champagne Grand Cru Blanc de Blancs, Legras & Haas 2015

White | France | Champagne | 12.5% | Dry sparkling

CODE: LH080153

Chouilly, in the Côte de Blancs, is rated 100% only for Chardonnay, and Jérôme Legras' 2015 Blanc de Blancs is quite supreme; seriously intense and biscuity, with lemony notes behind, even toasty with gorgeous weight on the palate, this feels – and is – really grown up, and has just been awarded Platinum in the highly regarded Decanter World Wine Awards.

"Layers of golden apples and pears, succulent honeyed peaches and intense roasted praline with a luxurious nut-oil texture and an enticing citrus crunch. A serious, savoury treat with an enduring mineral finish." - Olivia Mason, The Decanter, February 2024

"From a single Grand Cru, Chouilly in the Côtes des Blancs, this is a very polished all-Chardonnay Champagne, with lovely biscuit and walnut weight and refined sweet fruit."
- Joanna Simon, December 2024, www.joannasimon.com

Tasting Notes

Grand Cru in Champagne terms is strictly defined by vineyard status, and only those rated 100% qualify; the ratings date back to the times when the price of grapes was set for the region and only Grands Crus qualified for 100% of the set price.
