

Bourgogne Blanc, Famille Vincent 2021

Image: bo

White | France | Burgundy | 13% | Dry, crisp white | Nomacork
100% Chardonnay

In a nutshell:

The wines under the Famille Vincent label come from vineyards owned by the extended family who have neither the desire to make their own wine nor a sufficient quantity of fruit to do so; the vineyards are managed by the Château Fuissé team, and the wines made by them. They offer exceptional value.

Viticulture:

Much of the fruit for this Bourgogne Blanc comes from the slopes behind the rock of Vergisson, where the soils are limestone and clay.

Classification: Conventional

Harvesting Method: Manual

Vinification:

The wine undergoes fermentation in stainless steel, fining and gentle filtration occur before bottling. The average annual production is 80,000 bottles.
