

Bourgogne Côte d'Or, Domaine Guy Bocard 2021

White | France | Burgundy | 12.5% | Dry, full-bodied white

CODE: GB350213

From several plots around Meursault, the principal fruit coming from low-yielding old vines in Les Durots, on the Volnay side, half of which could be labelled Meursault rather than generic Bourgogne, with two other plots next to Meursault lieu dit Limouzin; all matured in barrel with only a small amount of new wood. Pale gold with a nose of rich white stone fruits, a touch of citrus, leafy, leading to a rich palate with fine creamed citrus notes, lightly grilled, fresh and racy with good depth and a long, refined finish. Drink 2024 - 2027

Tasting Notes

A new domaine for us this year (2023) consisting of 5.6 hectares in and around Meursault; it was founded by Guy Bocard's grandfather Charles in the 1920s and when Guy took over he changed the name to his. Guy retired in 2018 and has since sold the Domaine to the Derichebourg family. They have taken on René Mora as winemaker, who had worked for the Domaine for 13 years (starting as a picker and making his way up the ladder) before going to work with other Burgundy domaines such as Hubert Lamy and Jadot. The new owners are investing heavily in updating the property and particularly the chai so that each individual parcel can be handled separately.

75cl Bottle

£39.37

Case (6 bottles)

£236.26