

Côtes du Rhône Grande Réserve Blanc, Château Beauchêne 2025

White | France | Rhône | 14% | Dry, full-bodied white

CODE: GB080253

Pale green gold with creamy white flowers on the nose, a hint of fresh lime zest then honeyed and floral, ripe and inviting. Broad on the palate, rich, full bodied and creamy with peachy fruit, peach kernels too, fleshy white stone fruit and a leafy freshness to balance. A viscous and ample wine going to a long finish with fleshy stone fruit and a leafy twist at the end to finish clean. Drink 2026 - 2028

25% Clairette, 25% Grenache Blanc, 25% Roussanne, 20% Marsanne, 5% Bourboulenc.

Tasting Notes

We have worked with Château Beauchêne right from the beginning and their wines just keep on getting better; the vineyards are certified HVE 3, which takes into account everything from managing wildlife and insects to water usage (and what they do with their used water), and there is no doubt that the increased focus on the vineyard is repaid in the cellar. This is a rare chance to get hold of their white wine.
